On Constitutions and By-Laws of Auxiliary Societies: Drs. Hugh Kelley, James K. Hall, S. Singleton.

On Medical Journal: Drs. William T. Howard, Charles E. Johnson, R. H. Winborne.

On motion of Dr. Satchwell, Dr. Warburton Hill's case of violation of Medical Ethics, was taken up and considered.

Dr. Hill, through Dr. Custis of Newberne, acknowledged that he had violated the code of Ethics, asked forgiveness of the Society, and gave satisfactory assurance of his intention to adhere to the rules for the future. Whereupon, the following resolution, offered by Dr. Warren, was adopted:

WHEREAS: Dr. Warburton Hill has acknowledged himself guilty of the charges preferred against him, and has duly apoligized for the same;

Resolved, That further proceedings against him in this matter be indefinitely postponed.

Dr. Edward Warren, Editor of the Medical Journal, presented the following report. Adopted:

To the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina:

The undersigned begs leave to report, that the Medical Journal is in a healthy and prosperous condition, and that if it continues to be sustained by the Society, as liberally as heretofore, it must prove successful.

Having determined to remove to another State, he begs to present his resignation, to take effect on the completion of the present volume.

Thanking the Society for its liberality, he asks to be allowed to subscribe himself Very respectfully,

EDWARD WARREN, M. D.,

April 26th, 1860. Ed. N. C. Med. Journal.

Reports from County Societies being called for, Dr. James K. Hall, of Guilford, read an interesting paper upon the fevers of his region of the State; in which he exhibited much close thought, independence of opinion and practical good sense.

On motion, the report was referred for publication in the Medical Journal.

Dr. D. T. Tayloe also read a sketch of a singular case, which was enhanced in interest by a detail of its management.

On motion, it was referred for publication in the Medical Journal.

Dr. W. T. Howard presented a singular tumor of the testicle, which he had lately removed, with a melaneotype of the subject previous to the operation. It exhibited unique and interesting features in its structural character, growth, and influence on the health of the patient.

The President, Dr. Pittman, also made a verbal report of several interesting surgical cases, which he intimated would be offered to the Society at another time.

On motion, the election of officers was made the first thing in the order of business for to-morrow morning.

The subject of amendments of the Medical Board Bill was introduced.

Dr. Whitehead, chairman of the committee appointed at the last meeting to submit amendments, reported; and, on his motion, the Society resolved itself into a committee of the whole upon said bill, Dr. Winborne in the chair.

A discussion ensued, in which Drs. Whitehead, Satchwell, Warren, Kelly and others participated. After which the committee rose.

The Society then resumed the regular order of business, the President, Dr. Pittman, in the chair; whereupon Dr. Hugh Kelly offered the following resolution. Adopted:

Resolved, That this Society deems it inexpedient to memorialize the Legislature at its next session, in relation to amendments to the Medical Board Bill.

Dr. McKee, chairman of the Committee on Finance, presented the following report. Adopted:

The Committee on Finance report, that they have examined the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer, and find them correct. They ascertain that the receipts of the Society for the past year, including the balance on hand at the last meeting, to be $634 40, and the expenses $454 29, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of $180 11, which sum, in accordance with the resolution passed at the meeting of 1859, is due to the Editor of the Medical Journal. They find that $77.89 was paid for publishing the proceedings of 1859, $350 to the Editor of the North Carolina Medical Journal, and $26 40 for incidental expenses.

The Treasurer also reports a list of the names of delinquent members, with the sum due by each, amounting in all to $530. Most of these members having been informed by the Treasurer of the resolution passed at the last session of the Society, which says that in case they fail to pay their assessments their names shall be stricken from the catalogue, and having failed to respond to the notice, the committee recommend that the Secretary be now instructed to erase the names of all those who have failed to comply with Section third, Article eighth of the Constitution.

The Committee recommend that an assessment of two dollars be levied on each permanent member and Auxiliary Society, to defray the expenses of the current year.

W. H. McKEE,
W. A. B. NORCOM,
F. M. HENDERSON.

April 26th, 1860.

The President, in behalf of the physicians and citizens of Washington, extended an invitation to the members of the Society to a Ball to be given to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock, at the LaFayette Hotel.

On motion of Dr. Johnson, the invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Society returned.

On motion of Dr. Kelly, the Society adjourned to meet at this place at 8 o'clock to-night, for the purpose of hearing the Annual Address by Dr. Howard.

8 o'clock, P. M., Thursday, April 26th, 1860.

The Society met pursuant to adjournment. The President called the Society to order and introduced the Orator, Dr. William T. Howard, of Warrenton, who held his large audience in riveted attention, while he discussed "The true utility and dignity of the medical profession; some of the means of its culture and improvement, and the proper aims and aspirations of its members."

The Address was chaste and eloquent, and evinced the great devotion to the Profession which characterizes the orator.

Upon the conclusion of the Address Dr. Edward Warren offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Society are due to Dr. Howard for the eloquent, interesting and valuable Address which he has delivered this evening, and that he be requested to furnish a copy of the same for publication.

On motion, the Society adjourned to meet at the regular hour to-morrow morning.

9½ o'clock, A. M., Friday, April 27th, 1860.

The Committee on Medical Journal presented the following report, which was adopted:

To the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina:

The undersigned, being appointed a Committee on the Medical Journal of North Carolina, deem it not inappropriate to allude to the resignation of its former Editor, Dr. Edward Warren, and, in the name of the Medical Society of the State, to tender him their sincere thanks for the ability, fidelity and zeal displayed in its editorial management; and to assure him that the best wishes of the Society, for his continued prosperity and happiness, will accompany him in the wider field of usefulness and honor to which he has been called in the University of Maryland.

The Committee take great pleasure in reporting the Journal free from financial embarrassment; and, believing its continuance of great importance to the profession in the State, and its past success as conclusive proof of the ability of the Society to maintain it upon a firm and permanent basis, suggest that the same pecuniary aid which has hitherto been extended by the Society to it be continued for the future. With such assistance, and the hearty co-operation of individual members of the Society, the Committee do not doubt that the Journal will not only sustain itself, but will afford a moderate remuneration to the Editor.—They earnestly recommend, therefore, that every member of the Society will, at once, become a subscriber to it, and will act as an active agent for its increased circulation. In view, however, of the onerous duties which the chair editorial must necessarily impose upon one individual, and the time he must necessarily sacrifice to its interests, at the expense of his professional business, the Committee suggest the election for the future of two Editors of the Journal, and the propriety of leaving the place of publication discretionary with them.

The above suggestions seeming to meet the present necessities of the Journal, are respectfully submitted to the consideration of the Society.

W. T. HOWARD,
C. E. JOHNSON,
R. H. WINBORNE, } Committee.
